The National Intelligence

Client: Mignon Evans

URL: www.thenationalintelligence.com

Blog site for a nationally recognized expert on foreign policy.

Template: Sporticus template from Rocket Theme. This site came together with almost no modifications. We tried on several news templates, but this one gave us the straightforward, no-nonsense look that best fit this author. It is also highly readable, which is a plus for a site that is going to draw a more serious audience.
